

How to Find Us

CAMPBELL
SCIENTIFIC

WHEN MEASUREMENTS MATTER

By Road

From Junction 24 of the M1

(Route for HGVs)

Take the A6 through Kegworth to Hathern. Turn right onto the B588 at the traffic lights as you enter Hathern (signposted Shepshed). Campbell Scientific is on the right after approximately a mile, just after passing under the M1 bridge.

From Junction 23 of the M1 (No HGVs)

Take the A512 towards Ashby-de-la-Zouch turning right at the 1st set of traffic lights into Leicester Road (signposted Shepshed Town Centre). Follow Leicester Road to the 2nd mini-roundabout and take the 1st exit onto Kirkhill. At the roundabout at the bottom of Kirkhill take the 2nd exit (straight on) into B'ham Field Street. Follow Field Street round to a mini-roundabout and then turn right (signposted Hathern). Follow this road (B588) for approx. 1/2 mile where Campbell Scientific is located on the left just before reaching the motorway bridge.

From the A42 or Ashby-de-la-Zouch

Take the A512 to Shepshed and turn left into Leicester Road at the 2nd Set of traffic lights. From Leicester Road follow the directions above.

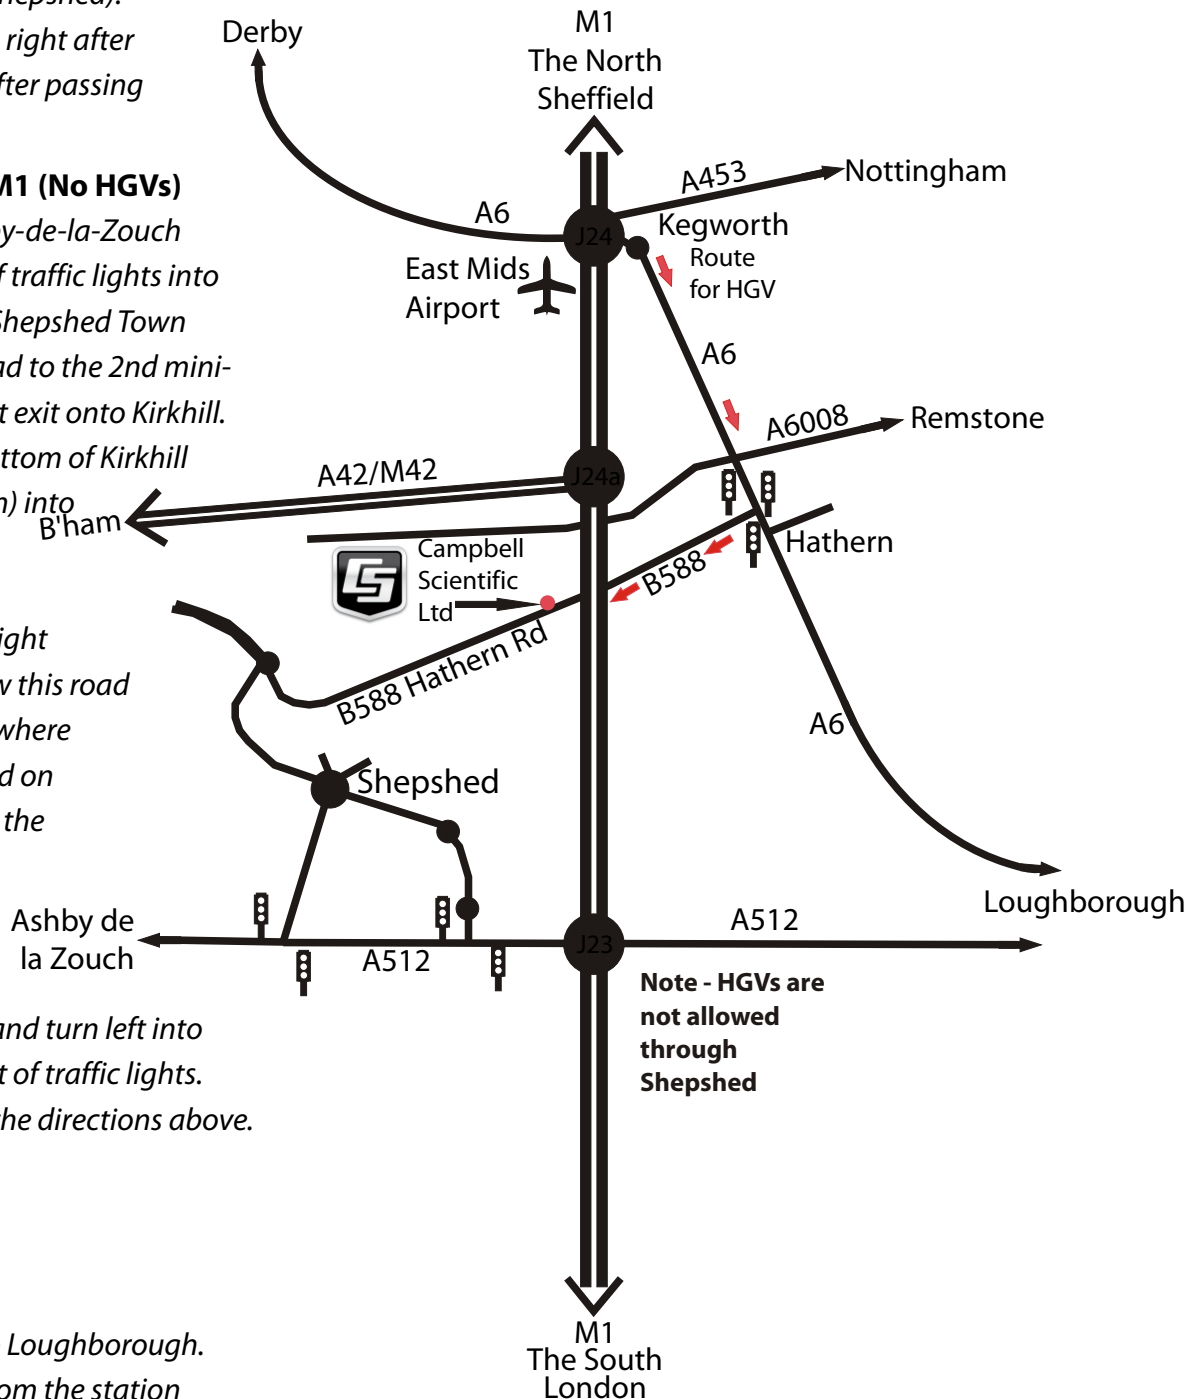

By Rail

Take a Midland Main Line to Loughborough. Shepshed is about 6 miles from the station
